The Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts

awards the Harris County the

Debt Obligations Star

for exemplary efforts in creating financial transparency around public debt. The Transparency Stars program recognizes local governments across Texas that are striving to meet a high standard for financial transparency online. These efforts provide citizens with clear, consistent information about public spending in user-friendly formats.

April 4, 2018